Singing with Dementia

Well, I have tried resting, sleeping, doing as I am told, read three books, including one by our friend Tim Edmunds and that's it! Too much time to feel sorry for myself!! So in the biggest U turn since the winter fuel allowance, plus the fact that no one else has come forward to take over, I have decided to continue organising the Singing with Dementia. I hope that my lovely, reliable volunteers will approve of this decision and continue with their wonderful work. Let's give it a try until at least Christmas when we will review the situation. Anyone else who wishes to volunteer is more than welcome. Blessings to you all, Jean Roberts

A message from Sylvia Heathcote

Once again I am asking for help. If you want to continue having flowers at the front of the church we need money to fund it. As everything else the cost is going up, as well as the cost of the flowers we also need to buy oasis and tape so the flowers can be arranged nicely by our excellent flower arrangers. If you are able to help please give a donation to Annette asap otherwise we will have to buy some nice artificial flowers. If you have any strong views on this subject please let me know. Thank you once again. Sylvia x
